

INITIATIVE MEASURE TO BE SUBMITTED DIRECTLY TO THE VOTERS

The Attorney General of California has prepared the following circulating title and summary of the chief purpose and points of the proposed measure:

(21-0007) AUTHORIZES ELECTRONIC SIGNATURE GATHERING FOR INITIATIVE, REFERENDUM, AND RECALL PETITIONS. INITIATIVE STATUTE. Requires Secretary of State to develop a system that allows voters to view state and local initiative, referendum, and recall petitions on Secretary of State's website and to sign them electronically directly on the website, or to download, print, and sign the printed petitions. Requires Secretary of State or local elections official to verify these signatures. Requires Secretary of State to invite arguments for and against petitions, and to post submitted arguments on website. Requires Secretary of State's website to include ongoing tally of each measure's signatures received electronically or on downloaded petitions. Summary of estimate by Legislative Analyst and Director of Finance of fiscal impact on state and local governments: One-time state and local government costs in the tens of millions of dollars or more to develop an online system for electronic petition signature gathering. Ongoing annual costs of millions of dollars or more to maintain the new system. Potential net costs or savings due to changed state and local government processes for verifying petition signatures.

To the Honorable Secretary of State of California:

We, the undersigned, registered, qualified voters of California, residents of the County (or City and County) referenced on the signature page of this petition, hereby propose amendments to the California Elections Code, relating to Initiative Referendum and Recall reform, and petition the Secretary of State to submit the same to the voters of California for their adoption or rejection at the next succeeding general election or at any special statewide election held prior to that general election or as otherwise provided by law.

The proposed statutory amendments read as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 107 is added to the Elections Code, to read:

107. (a) No later than 180 days after this section takes effect, the Secretary of State shall develop a system that allows a voter to view initiative, referendum, and recall petitions on the Secretary of State's Internet Web site and do either of the following:

(1) Provide necessary identifying information and electronically sign the petition directly on the Secretary of State's Internet Web site.

(2) Download, print, and sign a document in portable document format (PDF) that contains a copy of the petition and space for the signer to provide necessary identifying information.

(b) The system developed pursuant to subdivision (a) shall enable the Secretary of State to verify the authenticity of an electronic signature.

SEC. 2. Section 9023 is added to the Elections Code, to read:

9023. (a) An initiative or referendum petition that is cleared for circulation may be circulated pursuant to the system established under Section 107.

(b) (1) If a proponent informs the Secretary of State that he or she elects to have a petition circulated pursuant to Section 107, the Secretary of State shall do all of the following:

(A) Post the text of the petition on his or her Internet Web site.

(B) Enable a voter to do either of the following:

(i) Provide the information required by Section 9020 and electronically sign the petition directly on the Secretary of State's Internet Web site.

(ii) Download, print, and sign a document in portable document format (PDF) that contains a copy of the petition and space for the signer to provide the information required by Section 9020.

(C) Provide on his or her Internet Web site an ongoing tally of the total number of signatures received pursuant to the methods described in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1).

(D) Invite the submission of arguments for and against the measure, and post any submitted arguments on his or her Internet Web site.

(2) A document provided to a person pursuant to subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) shall include instructions for returning it to the Secretary of State.

(3) Notwithstanding Section 16.5 of the Government Code, an electronic signature submitted pursuant to this section may be used to sign an initiative or referendum petition. The signature and information obtained pursuant this subdivision shall be deemed to be personally affixed to the petition, and the signature shall be treated as a "signature" as defined in Section 354.5 of the Elections Code.

SEC. 3. Section 9036 is added to the Elections Code, to read:

9036. (a) Upon the close of the circulation period for a petition circulated pursuant to Section 9023, the Secretary of State shall verify the signatures and determine the total number of valid signatures submitted by voters who did either of the following:

(1) Electronically signed the petition.

(2) Signed a copy of the petition in portable document format (PDF).

(b) (1) If the total number of valid signatures is less than 100 percent of the number of qualified voters required to find the petition sufficient, the Secretary of State shall so notify the proponents, and he or she shall take no further action with regard to the petition.

(2) If the total number of valid signatures is 100 percent or more of the number of qualified voters needed to declare the petition sufficient, the Secretary of State shall certify pursuant to Section 9033 that the measure is qualified for the ballot.

SEC. 4. Section 9107 .5 is added to the Elections Code, to read:

9107.5. (a) An initiative or referendum petition that is cleared for circulation may be circulated pursuant to the system established under Section 107.

(b) (1) If a proponent informs the county elections official that he or she elects to have a petition circulated pursuant to Section 107, the county elections official shall notify the Secretary of State, who shall do all of the following:

(A) Post the text of the petition on his or her Internet Web site.

(B) Enable a voter to do either of the following:

(i) Provide the information required by Section 9020 and electronically sign the petition directly on the Secretary of State's Internet Web site.

(ii) Download, print, and sign a document in portable document format (PDF) that contains a copy of the petition and space for the signer to provide the information required by Section 9020.

(C) Provide on his or her Internet Web site an ongoing tally of the total number of signatures received pursuant to the methods described in subparagraph (B).

(D) Invite the submission of arguments for and against the measure, and post any submitted arguments on his or her Internet Web site.

(2) A document provided to a person pursuant to subparagraph (B) shall include instructions for returning it to the Secretary of State.

(3) Notwithstanding Section 16.5 of the Government Code, an electronic signature submitted pursuant to this section may be used to sign an initiative or referendum petition. The signature and information obtained pursuant this subdivision shall be deemed to be personally affixed to the petition, and the signature shall be treated as a "signature" as defined in Section 354.5 of the Elections Code.

SEC. 5. Section 9118.5 is added to the Elections Code, to read:

9118.5. (a) Upon the close of the circulation period for a petition circulated pursuant to Section 9107.5, the county elections official shall do both of the following:

(1) Request the electronic signature data and documents received in portable document format (PDF) from the Secretary of State.

(2) Examine the signatures and determine the total number of valid signatures submitted by voters who did either of the following:

(A) Electronically signed the petition.

(B) Signed a copy of the petition in portable document format (PDF).

(b) (1) If the county elections official finds the petition to be insufficient, the county elections official shall take no further action on the petition.

(2) If the county elections official finds the petition to be sufficient, the county elections official shall certify the results of the examination to the board of supervisors at the next regular meeting of the board.

SEC. 6. Section 9206.5 is added to the Elections Code, to read: 2

9206.5. (a) An initiative or referendum petition that is cleared for circulation may be circulated pursuant to the system established under Section 107.

(b) (1) If a proponent informs the elections official that he or she elects to have a petition circulated pursuant to Section 107, the elections official shall notify the Secretary of State, who shall do all of the following:
